

Aradel Holdings Plc has been named Energy Company of the Year at the inaugural Nairametrics Capital Market Choice Awards 2025, in recognition of its outstanding operational performance, financial resilience, and innovative contributions to Nigeria's energy sector. The awards ceremony took place on Friday, 23rd May, at the Civic Centre in Victoria Island, Lagos.

Organised by Nairametrics, the Capital Market Choice Awards celebrated the outstanding contributions of key market participants, including operators, regulators, investors, and other stakeholders, who have played pivotal roles in advancing the growth and stability of the capital market throughout 2024. The Energy Company of the Year category specifically honours organisations in the oil, gas, and power sectors that have consistently delivered exceptional shareholder returns while maintaining a strong commitment to sustainability and operational integrity.

2024 was a transformational year for Aradel Holdings Plc, marked by significant progress across its upstream, midstream, and downstream business segments. The company achieved notable financial growth and attained strategic milestones, including its successful listing on the Nigerian Exchange (NGX). These accomplishments not only underscore Aradel's operational strength and strategic focus but also position the company for sustained long-term success.

Commenting on the award, Adegbite Falade, CEO, Aradel Holdings Plc said, "Receiving the Energy Company of the Year award is a testament to the hard work, dedication, and resilience of our entire team, as well as our unwavering commitment to delivering sustainable energy solutions that foster economic growth, while creating long-term value for all our stakeholders."

With a pioneering history demonstrating technical excellence and continuous improvement, Aradel Holdings Plc continues to deliver innovation and sustainability in Nigeria's energy sector, playing a vital role in shaping the future of energy in Africa.

- Ends -